SELECTION DU SOMMELIER

BLANC

Irouléguay, Herri Mina, Pyrénées '05
After retiring from making wine at Château Petrus, Jean Claude Berrouet decided to return to his childhood home of Irouléguay in Southwestern France. Irouléguay is famous for richer styled whites that match perfectly with seafood.

ROSÉ

Sancerre Rosé, François Cotat, Chavignol '10
François Cotat is a legendary grower/producer in the Loire Valley and his extremely limited Rosé is made from 95% Pinot Noir grapes grown in the Sancerre Region. This is serious wine and not at all a simple summer sipper.

glass 20 / bottle 80

ROUGE

Cabernet Franc/Gamay Noir, Ah! Wines, El Dorado County, "Bebame"
Winemaker Steve Edmunds believes in low alcohol wines from cool climates handled minimally in the cellar. The Bebame (Spanish for "drink me") is a perfect bistro wine as it is great on its own, and with most all of our food.
